

AGREEMENT ON COOPERATION OF YOUNG RESEARCHERS

Numer.....

Concluded on 15.12.2020 in Bielsko-Biała between:

Bielsko-Biała School of Finance and Law, 5 Tańskiego Street, 43-300 Bielsko-Biała, REGON 070572182. The University is entered in the register of the Minister of Science and Education under the number: 67. Bielsko-Biała School of Finance and Law is represented by the Rector Jacek Binda, Ph.D., Professor WSiP and Dnipro University of Technology, av. Dmytra Yavornytskogo 19, 49-005 Dnipro, Ukraina. Dnipro University of Technology is represented by the Rector Ph.D., DSc, Professor Gennadiy Pivnyak.

The subject of the agreement is scientific cooperation in promoting students and young researchers in the field of economic sciences (economics, finance, marketing, accounting, management). In particular, as a tool for carrying out the transition, the partners agree to organize cyclical scientific conferences.

By co-organizing, the partners agree to understand each other:

1. joint cooperation in matching the topics of the speakers' speeches to the discussion panels,
2. joint substantive assessment of the validity of allowing speakers to participate in the conference,
3. joint assessment of the substantive terms and conditions of panel moderators and allowing them to assume the function of panel moderators.

The partners also agree that a representative of the co-organizer will have the right to speak prior to the plenary lecture in front of all participants of the conference.

The partners agree that the co-organizer has the right to promote its own research results and scientific theories in the scope of the discussed topics and to promote young scientists and their students during the conference.

The logo of the co-organizer will be placed on all materials promoting the events.

The co-organizers also undertake to promote the conference on their website and scientific portals of their choice, and the publication will be promoted on an Open Access basis.

The partners agree that in matters not covered by this agreement there are generally accepted principles of ethics and respect for centuries-old traditions of the academic community.

The partners agree that there is no remuneration for joint cooperation and that cooperation does not entail any financial consequences.

The agreement has been drawn up in two identical copies, one for each partner.
